

Eateries & supply stops in the immediate vicinity of the Dragoncon hotel blocks.

Note: All this info was compiled using online references as well as the original restaurant pdf on the Dragoncon website. Though most of these places accept credit, I can't guarantee all of them do so be ready to pay accordingly. I also don't live in Atlanta some info may be outdated, though this version has been updated from my first post. Still, this should help everybody get what they need while in town.
